PAULDING, MISS.

Saturday Morning, Nov. 20, 1858.

Mobile Market.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY LEADER,
COTTON.—There was a good and somewhat general market. The sales amounted to $200,000.
was making quiet and steady.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—The sales of cotton this day were 11,500 bales. Prices easier, but quotations unchanged. Holders offer freely, but show no disposition to press sales. Market closed at 11 to 11 for middling. Freight to Liverpool—prices still but unchanged.

The TOURNAMENT.—In the Tournament that came off at Jackson, during the Fair, Horatio TAYLOR, Esq., of Jackson, was declared victor, over nine other competitors. If anybody wants to know what a "Tournament" is, they can find it minutely described in Scott's beautiful novel, Ivanhoe.

Gov. Seward's Manifesto—the Abolition Program.

We regret that the press upon our columns has been unable to furnish us from reliable sources of Mr. Seward's the great leader and organizer of the Anti-Slavery cause, delivered near the close of the late canvass in New York, at Rochester in that State. The speech was evidently prepared with great deliberation and thought, and may, therefore, be regarded as well considered, in all its principles, and purport, and views, on the part of the author, and through him, of the party which he leads and represents. Mr. Seward is perhaps inferior in point of ability to no living public man of our country.—Of the great men given to the public service by the North, he is second only to Webster—in full the equal of Adams, Woodbury, Van Buren, Buchanan, Case, & Co., and undeniably superior to any man now in the Senate, not omitting Douglass, Douglass and Hopper.—An example of appreciating literary and intellectual effort and excellence, one always set up in the smash-up of two freight cars, and the damaged locomotive. It seems that there were two trains going down, one a short distance behind the other, and about a mile and a half apart. Waynesboro, a forward train, in rounding a curve, which was slightly up grade, struck speed and came nearly to a standstill. Before any one could run back and give a signal, the rear train was upon it.

Mr. Fessenden, our late Minister to Mexico, has arrived in Mobile, bound for the U. S. steamer Plymouth. He was fatter than ever, following his health, and his reputation for being a valuable met.

Boatmen.—A boatman has just come up the Both of the High Court, Hon. W. L. Barks, elected to take Judge Faxon's place on the first of January, has been appointed by the Governor of the vacancy occasioned by Judge Faxon's resignation.

An accident occurred on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad last Tuesday, which resulted in the smash-up of two freight cars, and the damaged locomotive. It seems that there were two trains going down, one a short distance behind the other, and about a mile and a half apart. Waynesboro, a forward train, in rounding a curve, which was slightly up grade, struck speed and came nearly to a standstill. The Jackson correspondent of the Vicksbury Adv. gives the following among his items of intelligence from the Legislature of Mississippi:

"That the portion of Gov's Message referring to Graves' defalcations and Arthur's report, be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means, which Mr. Gordon, Gov. Whipple and Mr. Smoot participated. Gov. Whipple traced the history of the bill, and said that it had been introduced by both State and Congress, and that nothing could be done to the bill, and insisted that he had suggested the proper committee for the reference. Mr. Smoot, after some discussion, agreed with the bill, and will no doubt be a leading part in the discussions of the House."

Governor of Kansas.—Hon. Sam'l. M. BACHMAN, the veteran editor of the Democratic organ of Ohio, has been appointed by Mr. Buchanan, Governor of Kansas, place of Drexel.

Correspondence of the Boston Post.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—One of the most interesting items of news from our country was buried in this city yesterday.

The occasion of his death affords an opportunity of giving your readers a sketch of the life of this distinguished man. Let it serve as a warning, not as an example.

He had been a resident of Washington for many years, during which period he amassed great wealth, by gaming; but, to the mild and honest soul, it was not important to him to be a gambler.
